The meeting was held under auspices of the Park View Citizens' Association in Whitney Avenue Christian Church. Mr. Brown undertook to sit the efforts of the people in making Washington not only the model city of the country, in every respect, but also the model city of the world. He pleaded that the citizens support the proposed transformation of Rock Creek Valley into a park connecting the Speedway and Rock Creek Park, which would make a great chain of parks such as no other city in this country has.
